

Educational Background

University of Minnesota, Ph.D. – 1998

Educational Psychology, Counseling and Student Personnel Psychology

College of St. Thomas, M.A. – 1977

Educational and Counseling Psychology

Hebrew University, Jerusalem, Israel – 1971-1972

Junior year abroad

University of Minnesota, B.A. – 1973

Major-Sociology, Phi Beta Kappa, Magna Cum Laude

Relevant Employment History

JLK & Associates, LLC, 2002-present

Independent consultation services including assessment for selection and development, coaching for leadership, and career counseling.

MDA Consulting Group, Inc., 1992-2002

- Senior consulting psychologist
- Assessment for selection and development
- Coaching
- Lead psychologist on a number of major projects
- Internship for doctorate, 1993-1995
- Adjunct staff, 1992-1993

Residential Licensed Realtor, 1981-1986

Edina Real Estate

College Counselor, 1977-1981

Minneapolis Community College (Master's internship)

Lakewood Community College

Macalester College

Career Counselor and Psychometrist, 1974-1977

CETA (Comprehensive Employment and Training Act)

Teaching Assistantships at University of Minnesota

International Institute for Counseling Psychologists

Career and Life Planning for Engineering Students

Supervised Master's students in Counseling Psychology during their internships

Professional Memberships

American Psychological Association

Minnesota Women Psychologists

Society for Industrial and Organizational Psychologists

Society of Consulting Psychology

Awards

Graduate Student Award – Minnesota Career Development Association, 1997

Presentations

Wf360, Main Event 2003

Carlson School of Business

Facilitator/Commentator

All day interactive, televised, global conversations with international business leaders and MBA students

WIN – Women of Influence, 2002

“Follow the Leader: Career Advancement and Enhancement Advice from Successful Women”

SIOP – Society for Industrial and Organizational Psychology

15th Annual Conference, 2000

“Mid-Career Female MBA Graduates: Differences between Line and Staff Managers”

University of Minnesota Non-faculty Staff Workshop, 1995

“Out of the Box Creative Problem Solving”

American Association for Counseling and Development

Annual Convention, 1990

“Women, Stress and Coping”

Volunteer Activities

Board Memberships

Chrysalis, 2002-2007

Hopkins Education Foundation, 1997-2003

Sholom Community Alliance, 1996-2001

Tutor-Minneapolis Public Schools - Current

Special Interests

Work/life balance issues, women’s career advancement issues, stress and coping, midlife planning, and individual definition of success.

Doctoral dissertation: “The Mid-career Female MBA Graduate: An Analysis of Differences Between Staff and Line Managers”.

Master’s special project: “The Multiple Role Woman and How She Copes with Stress”.

Licensure

State of Minnesota, Licensed Psychologist

Ph.D., 1998, #1520; M.A 1984 #924.